Apptix has created this Acceptable Use Policy ("Policy") to help enhance the use of its Services by preventing unacceptable use. By using the Services, you consent to the acceptable use practices described in this Policy. Apptix may suspend or terminate your use of the Services if you or any of your employees or other users of the Services violate this Policy.

Prohibited Actions Relating to Content

- Unlawful Use. You may not use the Services to transmit any material that, intentionally or unintentionally, constitutes or encourages a criminal offense, violates the rights of any person or entity, violates any local, state, national, or international law, or any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder, or victimizes, harasses, degrades, or intimidates an individual or group of individuals on the basis of religion, gender, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, age, disability, or any other reason.
- Threats. You may not use the Services to threaten harm to people or property.
- Harmful & Offensive. You may not use the Services to post or transmit any content that is unlawful, defamatory, libelous, slanderous, obscene, pornographic, indecent, lewd, harassing, threatening, harmful, invasive of privacy or publicity rights, abusive, inflammatory, or otherwise harmful or offensive to third parties.
- Interference. You may not do anything to interfere with other users of the Services.
- Forgery or Impersonation. You may not impersonate any person or entity or otherwise misrepresent your affiliation with a person or entity.
- Infringing Content. You may not use the Services to post or transmit any content that infringes any patent, trademark, trade secret, copyright, or other intellectual or proprietary right of any person or entity. This includes, but is not limited to, the unauthorized posting or transmission of graphics, pictures, photographs, logos, software, music, and videos.

Prohibited Actions Relating to Network Usage

- Spam. You may not transmit any unsolicited commercial or bulk email. You may not transmit any "spam."

You also may not:

- use any software that facilitates or enables spam
- use mail bombing or other flooding techniques
- undertake deliberate attempts to overload a system
- engage in broadcast attacks
- send multiple messages to the same e-mail address with the same basic contents
- engage in trolling or otherwise posting messages designed to elicit responses
- send unauthorized subscriptions of another's name to mailing lists of any kind
- store, use, or distribute tools that collect email addresses for the purposes of bulk mailing.
- Hacking. You may not use the Services for unauthorized access to or use of data, systems, or networks, including any attempt to probe, scan, or test the vulnerability of a system or network or to breach securities or authentication measures without express authorization of the owner of the system or network.
- Viruses. You may not use the Services to upload, post, or otherwise distribute or facilitate distribution of any content that contains viruses, worms, Trojan Horses, corrupted files, or any other similar software or programs that may damage the operation of or compromise the integrity and security of another computer, system, or service.
- Interception. You may not use the Services for unauthorized monitoring of data or traffic on any network or system, without the express written authorization of the owner of the system or network.
- Modifications to Transmissions. You may not install any amplifiers, enhancers, repeaters, or other devices that modify, disrupt, or interfere in any way with the radio frequency used to provide the Services.
- Avoiding System Restrictions. You may not use any means to avoid the prohibitions of this Policy.
- Falsification of Origin. You may not use a forged or misrepresented header, return mailing, or internet protocol address to mask the identity or contact information of the sender. You may not engage in "spoofing".
- Other Networks. You may not use the Services to engage in activities that violate the conditions of any other network access provider or internet service provider.
- Apptix Network. You may not engage in any conduct that has a negative effect on Apptix or its network, including, without limitation, overloading servers on the Apptix network, causing portions of the Apptix network to be blocked by other network providers, generating unresolved third-party complaints or complaints which, in the discretion of Apptix, impose an unreasonable administrative burden on Apptix.

Prohibited Adult Content

You are expected to use the Apptix site and utilize Apptix provided services properly and responsibly. You may not send messages that contain what is commonly acknowledged as adult graphic content or pornographic materials, including child pornography, links or distribution of passwords to adult websites, banners advertising adult websites, and sex-related merchandise. Apptix may terminate Customers that violate this prohibition at any time and without notice.
